

What does Agent-Owned Property coverage cover?

The agent-owned property endorsement adds coverage when you want to be the listing agent on the sale of your own, or a direct relative's residential one to four-unit property, as long as the following requirements are met: a home inspection report is issued, a home warranty is in place, and all state-required property transfer disclosure statements are completed.