

What do you get with Contingent Liability coverage?

The Contingent Liability Endorsement adds bodily injury and property damage coverage to your policy. If a client gets hurt at a showing or something is stolen at an open house, the agent may be liable. This coverage is usually excluded from a general liability policy for real estate professionals.